V. Lakshminarayanan, employee of the Indian Overseas Bank Limited.

BEFORE THE NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL (BANK DISPUTES)
AT BOMBAY.

COMPLAINT No. 15 OF 1961.

REFERENCE No. 1 OF 1960.

Shri S. V. Lakshminarayanan, Special Cadre Assistant, The Indian Overseas Bank Ltd., Coimbatore. Complainant.

Versus

The Indian Overseas Bank Ltd., Central Office, Madras Respondent
 In the matter of a Complaint under Section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, dated January 1961.

PRESENT

The Honourable Shri Justice K. T. Desai, Presiding Officer, National Industrial Tribunal (Bank Disputes), Bombay

APPEARANCES :

Shri H. K. Sowani, Advocate for the Complainant.

Shri S. V. Sundram for the Respondent-Bank

INDUSTRY : Banking

Bombay, Dated : 6th May 1961

AWARD

1. The complainant has filed a complaint under Section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. The complainant is an employee of the respondent Bank. On 13th March 1959 the complainant was promoted as a special cadre assistant with effect from 1st March 1949. Some of the special cadre assistants are entrusted by the Bank with supervisory work. On 30th March 1959 the Assistant General Manager of the Bank issued a Memo No. 22-93 wherein it has been stated that the complainant may be paid Supervisory allowance at the rate of Rs. 45 per month for the period he did supervisory work. At that time the Bank was in 'B' Class and a sum of Rs. 45 was paid to the complainant as supervisory allowance. In the month of July, 1959, the complainant was posted at the Bank's Branch at Tiruppur as "second signatory". The complainant continued to receive the same amount of salary and allowances as he used to receive while he was at Coimbatore. In his pay bill the sum of Rs. 45, which was being paid a supervisory allowance, has been styled as 'special allowance'. The Bank was up-graded in the month of January 1960 to Class 'A'. In consequence hereof there was an increase in the amount of emoluments payable to the complainant. On 22nd April 1960, the Assistant General Manager of the Bank transferred the complainant back to Coimbatore and brought in his place one Valliappan to Tiruppur. The complainant was not given any supervisory work at Coimbatore. The Bank did not pay any supervisory allowance to the complainant after such transfer. The complainant thereupon has filed the present petition complaining against the action of the Bank under Section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act 1947, alleging that there has been a contravention of the provisions of Section 33. It is alleged by the complainant that the conditions of services have been altered by the Bank without obtaining the prior permission of the Tribunal, by not paying him the supervisory allowance.

2. Shri Sowani who appeared on behalf of the complainant relied upon the provisions of para 168 of the Sastry Award. That paragraph in terms says as under :—

"168. We must also make mention of certain categories described by such terms as junior assistants and senior assistants and classified by some banks as officers. The terms do not by themselves indicate the nature of the work entrusted to them. Irrespective of their designation, in so far as their work falls under clerical work, though of a higher type, as explained by us in our discussion relating to categories of workmen in our award in a later chapter, they must also be entitled to the scales of pay, minimum special allowance etc. which we have prescribed for the appropriate kind of work during such periods as they are in charge of that kind of work. It is not possible to give a more precise or detailed direction in this matter. We trust that the banks will act in the true spirit of these directions."

Under this paragraph supervisory allowance is only payable during the time when a person is in-charge of supervisory work. Under this provision the complainant would be entitled to the supervisory allowance so long as he was entrusted with supervisory work by the Bank. In his letter, dated 30th March 1959 the Assistant General Manager has stated that supervisory allowance should be paid to the complainant for the period during which he did supervisory work. There is no obligation upon the Bank to give supervisory work to the complainant and to pay him a supervisory allowance. By not entrusting the complainant with supervisory work and by not paying him any supervisory allowance, there has not been any alteration in the conditions of service of the complainant. The Bank has not in any manner contravened the provisions of Section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

3. There is no merit in the complaint and the same is dismissed. There will be no order as to costs.

KANTILAL T. DESAI,
Presiding Officer,
National Industrial Tribunal,
(Bank Disputes), Bombay.
